CARMEN SALVATORE

Announces for Member of School Board

District One Comprised of

Jupiter, Kelsey City, Riviera, Canal Point, Pahokee

To the Voters:

I am a candidate for a member of the Board of Public Instruction from District One. In announcing for this important office I fully realize the responsibilities and duties connected therewith, having served one term in this office. I also realize that a public office is a public trust and when elected I shall remember that my services are to be rendered for the betterment and advancement of schools in our county.

I am vitally interested in Palm Beach county schools and have four children attending Pahokee schools today. I have been actively identified with civic work and directly or indirectly interested in the welfare of our schools for more than ten years.

I earnestly solicit your vote and support in the coming election and promise to faithfully execute the duties of the office to the very best of my ability.

CARMEN SALVATORE.
